Edue, of a Daughter. The China Mail. HONGKONG, THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 1880. THE announcement, that the temporary appointment of the Hon, Ng Choy to be a Member of the Legislative Council (in place of the Hon. Hugh Bold Gibb, absent from the Colony) had been approved by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, appears in the local Gazette. This was not unexpected, for the reason For SWATOW, AMOY, TAMSUI, AND we have previously given, viz., that the temporary or "acting" form of the appointment avoided any strong representations. The fact, however, suggests Legislative Council in these days? It is clearly not a body that is at all overworked under the present administration, and its only duty under existing circumstances is to furnish a limited quota of limbs to be periodically placed under the mahogany at Government House on State occasions. Where the legislative functions of this august body the Chinese. come in, it would be difficult to define : and the manner in which the Head of the Executive now consults his Councils REUTER'S TELEGRAMS. has certainly not been prominently brought before the public of late, if we except an occasional allusion to the doings of the Council that is Executive

We have more than once drawn serious attention to the manner in which the more important schemes upon which alk sections of the community are agreed are quietly shelved; and it remains to be considered whether, if residents do not take the trouble to give body to their opinions, the scoumulated funds hitherto regarded as dedicated to certain objects, will not be frittered away upon what has been unbesitatingly condemned as an absolutely needless waste. It is as much the duty of the residents thus to enunciate their matured views as it is for the Governor to concoct despatches giving what he thinks is the best advice under the circumstances. If this could only be done, the well-wishers of the Colony would be all the bett r satisfied to know that the Colonial Office authorities have heard both sides WE give in another column a memorial 5 p.m -English Mail leaves for Ports of presented by Mr C. C. Moreno to the Government of the Huwaiian Islands praying for an annual subsidy of $18,000 dollars to be paid to the C. M. S. N. &c., at the residence of Miss Lamb (by Coy. for a regular service between that country and China. We should be glad to see the scheme on behalf of which Mr Moreno is labouring successful, but we have little hope that the Kingdom of Hawaii will contribute the amount he asks to the coffers of the C. M. S. N. Coy. There is in Honolulu a steadily growing feeling against all mail or steamer subsidies, which has been encouraged by, if it does not take its rise from, the scantly fair way in which the Pacific Mail Steamship Company have treated and continue to treat these Islands. They draw a subsidy of $1,000 a month from the Government, and the Company's steamers are exempt from port charges for light houses, buoys, wharfage, and water from the Government pipes, and their coals machinery and supplies are admitted duty free, while the vessels laden with such coals, etc., are also exempt from port charges; free storage is also granted. It is calculated that the Islands by trade, passenger and cargo, and subsidy together, contribute to the income of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company as much as $180,000 per annum besides the remission of harbour dues &c., &c. It is well said that this sum may indeed be but a trifle to a wealthy corporation like the P. M. Co., but it is quite a considerable sum to a small and by no means rich Government like that we refer to. The Press of the country has spoken out warmly on the subject of the unsatisfactory nature of the service rendered, and the inconvenience of the flying visits is enlarged upon, as well in the name of the travelling as of the mercantile classes, who are kept in a fever of hurry and inconvenience, and are generally treated with scant consideration by the Company's employees. The idea on their part would seem to be that, as Honolulu is only a way-port, they are doing it a great favor in stopping there at all, and that therefore the residents and those who may desire to ship or to disembark there have no right to grumble whatever pranks are played upon them, but should take with due humility and thankfulness the goods the gods provide. The Commercial Advertiser suggests a semimonthly line of steamers to San Francisco, owned locally, either wholly or in part and conjointly with San Francisco. The same organ distinctly announces its intention of strenuously opposing the grant of any further subsidy to foreign steamship lines, in which course it is claimed that the paper will have the support of the community at large. There are large internal improvements which should be, and no doubt will be attended to before such schemes as that Mr C. C. Moreno presses on the Government can be thought of. The line of steamers he proposes is not, we fear, likely to secure support from the Hawaiian Government in money, even although the King and all his advisers are ready to welcome the Celestial emigrants, and the country is generally known as the Paradise of

We are informed that H. M. S. Wivern will shortly be paid off prior to taking up her new duties in connection with the defence of the harbour. She will not be recommissioned in the usual way, but will simply be attached to the Victor Emanuel and will be under the immediate orders of the Commodore. A small party of men will be retained on board, and when it is thought desirable to send her out for a short cruise at any time, she will be manned from the receiving ship.

The case will be remembered in which two men, charged with breaking open and stealing from a box of treasure which was on brard the Yotsai, were tried in the Supreme Court, the case against them breaking down. Another of the men who was auspected of being implicated in the robbery was tried at Macao on Friday last, and was sentenced to ten years' penal servitude. Another man has yet to be tried at the present Sessions. On this man who was convicted, who was a Chinese passenger, there were found $250, believed to be part of the proceeds of the robbery, 16 skeleton keys, 3 small files, and a Chinese dagger.

We observe the small parade ground in front of the North Barracks is being laid with a covering of chunam. Some twelve months ago the ground was turfed over, with paths crossing at regular distances, but the men could not be induced to keep to the gravel and the green turf, which, though pretty enough when first laid, soon got completely trodden down. The chunam will be an improvement so far as the traffic goes, but will throw up a powerful glare during the heat of the day.

Some little consternation was aroused on Tuesday night by firing of what appeared to be a piece of heavy ordnance, about twenty minutes past ten o'clock, resulting in the wildest and most chimerical suggestions as to its cause. The concussion was I ud and its effects were distinct y felt by th so on board vessels adjoining the manof-war anchorage, and many of the houses shook, it is said, as by an earthquate. When the matter comes to be enquired less origin. The efficers of H. M. S. H. E. the Governor of Macao bas urged upon the home Government that the monthly contribution of $12,000 provided by that proved the agreement for the supply of Colony as its share of the Naval Estimates be expended locally in t'e protection of Portuguese interests in the south of China. He has succeeded so far as to secure the services of two gunboats, the Mandovi and informed Mr Marty that he could no longer the Tamega, the former of which arrived guarantee the contract which had been nt Macao last week, while the latter is expected shortly. One of these vessels will probably be stationed up the coast and the appeared on the written document, and other will remain at Macao.

The reigning King himself, Don Luiz, has consented to be a member of the reception committee, and a meries of files will be given by him, as well as by his father, Don Fernando, who is President of the Royal Academy of Science. - King Luiz, who has already translated Hamlet into Portuguese, has just published a translation of The Merchant of Venice. I am in receipt of a despatch from the Superintendent of Circuit Liu, containing instructions to the following purpose :--The Consul-General Dr. Fock has forwa del to me a communication wherein he adverts to the fact that Chinese se ling fowls, ducks and all kind of live poultry about the Settlements, carry them on poles, feet tied together, and head downward, an attitude which the cries of the animals make offensive both to eye and ear. This mode of carrying live animals has been prohibited heretofore; but it seems that the notification has sunk into obliv on, and that the old practice, notwithstanding it hurts the law of God and mankind, has sprung again into existence. The onsul-General, therefore, requests me to issue a new notification, with the publication of which you are entrusted by the present instruction. In receipt of this despatch, I may add that proclamations interdicting the abuse in question have been repeatedly issued in former times. As it has now nevertheless become necessary to publish a new prohibition, I trust that the owners of poultry-shops in the Settlements as well as country-people offering poultry for sale will all without exception obey my commands, and their fowls, duck, do, into baskets. They are not allowed to carry them on poles, feet tied together, and head downwards. Those who infringe this prescription will be, on being apprehended by the police, brought before me and most severely punished. Obey with trembling, let nobody disregard these my commands.

SUPREME COURT.

IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION. (Before His Honor F. Snowden, Puisne

> Judge.) Thursday, June 3.

MARTY & A HEE AND CHOW PING. $316.—This was an action for breach of contract. Mr Dennys appeared on behalf of the plaintiff, and Mr Brereton for the

It appeared that in November last an agreement was entered into by Ahee to supply a certain quantity of rattan monthly for twelve months, commencing in January of the present year, at a certain rate; and in the lower part of the town literally the second defendant signed the contract as guarantee for its fulfilment. No rattan had ever been supplied under the contract and Mr Marty had been compelled to go into, it turns out to have had a most harm | to Canton for the goods and had to pay a higher price than that which had been agreed upon under the contract with the first

Mr Brereton took objection to the summons being laid against the two defendants good things, a pyrotechnic display was together, and contended that Mr Dennys made, after which a torpedo was exploded, | should elect to proceed against one or other

His Lordship took a similar view of the matter, and Mr Dennys struck out the name of the firs, defendant from the record and took action only against Chow Ping the guarantor for the ful dment of the bargain. Mr Marty, on being placed in the box, the rattan in monthly quantities and that delivery had never been made. He had frequently notified through his clerk to defendant that the contract was not being carried out, and in March he had a personal interview with him, when he, defendant, entered into for the supply of rattan. Mr Brereton contended that there was more in the agreement than actually it was part of the agreement that Mr Marty should advance a certain portion of the purchase money, and he proposed to call two witnesses to that effect. He characterized the contract as faulty and imperfect in its construction. There was a penalty on the defendant for non-fulfi ment of his portion of the bargain, but there was no such condition binding the plaintiff. There was a want of mutuality, and there was no consideration whatever to the defendant for the amount sued for. His client was a poor man, and he was being trapped into the payment of this money. Mr Marty should have notified montaly that the contract was led his client that he would have to purchase elsewhere, and that he would have to take steps to recover the excess in price if any. His Lordship was not sure whether Mr Dennys was not premature in coming into Court now, The contract held good for twelve months, and he would wish to take time to consider the matter, as also to consult the proceedings in two similar cases which had occurred in England in which Railway companies had sued contractors for failing to supply certain quantities of iron for stipu-Lated periods.

The further hearing of the case was postponed till Saturday next, the 5th instant.

The box with the articles enumerated was in the fore-hold, and be last saw it there on the previous night before he went to sleep. About I o'clock on the morning of the 80th May he was roused by his father who told him that his box was gone. He gave information to the police and all the pawn shops were visited, but nothing was discovered. Next day from what his elder brother said he went ag in to the station and found the defendant in custody. He afterwards in company of the police visited a pawnshop in Kowloon, where he identified several articles of clothing and jewellery. Defendant is his brother in-law and was formerly employed on board the junk, but was discharged twelve months ago for stealing money. Li Tak Kwong, brother of last witness, said when he heard of the robbery he at once suspected the defendant and went in search of him. He discovered him next day on board another junk, and on searching him found three pawntickets relating to his brother's property. He then handed blm over to the police.

Inspector Swanston proved searching the pawn shops in Shau-ki-wan, and also the arrest of the prisoner. He went to the pawn shop in Kowloon indicated on the tickets and got the stolen property, which the complainant identified as his; when defendant was charged at the station he another one also."

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

tervals of two months, each number conillustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter. The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance. The publication includes papers original

A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great is also paid to the Review

Address China Review, Hongkong .- Northern

Christian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review: -" This visitors at moderate rates, 110, Queen' is the title of a publication, the first number | Road Central.—J. Cook, Proprietor. of which has lately reached us from Hong. kong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as Illustrations of the Chinese.—Arono's in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to Road. occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the tention that has been bestowed of late years to H.E. the Governor. upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important atores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the lieview by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of Pencil-cases, &c.—John Noble, agent Conqueror honour is deservedly given, an excellent for Negretti & Zambra. summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness | makers, Eastern House of Beaconsfield of style; and an account of the career of Areade. the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course Four Coolies, derived from the native community, Three Coolies, amongst whom also are to be found the guaranters and securities necessary to place it on a business andlegal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, - consider themselves instified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to advertiters are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of

The field open to a paper of this description-conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-obstructive in tonein almost limitless. It on the one hand commands Chinese belief and interest while on the other deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners. Like English journals it contains Editorialswith Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements. Subscription orders for either of the
